ENAXI

2021 ENAXI RESERVE ESTATE CABERNET SAUVIGNON

OAK KNOLL DISTRICT, NAPA VALLEY

TASTING NOTES The 2021 ENAXI Reserve Estate Cabernet Sauvignon is a monumental and worthy successor to its inaugural vintage. It pours a deep, inky garnet, nearly opaque in the glass, signaling its immense concentration. An explosive and layered bouquet immediately captivates the senses with aromas of crème de cassis, ripe blackberry, and dark cherry, which unfold into complex notes of graphite, cedar, and rich mocha. On the palate, the wine is voluminous and expansive, with a plush, full-bodied texture that delivers an intense core of pure dark fruit. Sophisticated flavors of bittersweet chocolate and vanilla bean are seamlessly integrated with a massive structure of powerful yet exceptionally fine-grained tannins. Vibrant acidity brings energy and poise, leading into a remarkably long and complex finish that echoes with dark fruit and savory earth for well over a minute.

WINEMAKING NOTES Under the masterful direction of winemaker Kirk Venge, the creation of the 2021 ENAXI Reserve followed a path of absolute precision. The journey began with hand-harvesting in the cool of the morning, followed by a rigorous dual-sorting process, first by hand and then with an optical sorter to ensure only the most perfect berries were chosen. The whole berries underwent an extended maceration of over three weeks to gently extract optimal color, flavor, and tannin. The wine was then aged for 28 months in 100% new French oak from the finest cooperages, including Darnajou, Taransaud, and Sylvain. Finally, it was aged for an additional 20 months in the bottle before its release, allowing its complex layers to integrate and harmonize into a truly seamless wine.
